

A general view of the competitors in the James Gordon Bennett international balloon race at Geneva. On the left is the U. S. Navy entry, and in the center, marked No. 4, is the U. S. Army balloon. International.

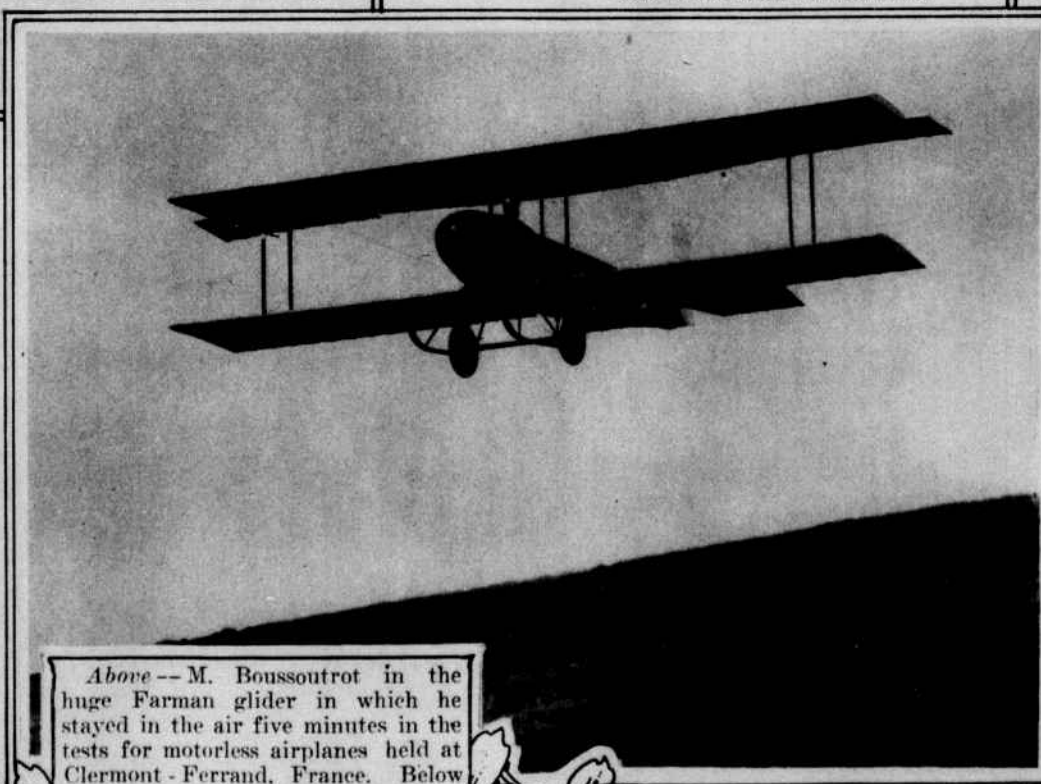

King Constantine of Greece inspecting his troops prior to their departure for Thrace. Photo shows the King congratulating a young soldier on a valorous exploit. Wide World.

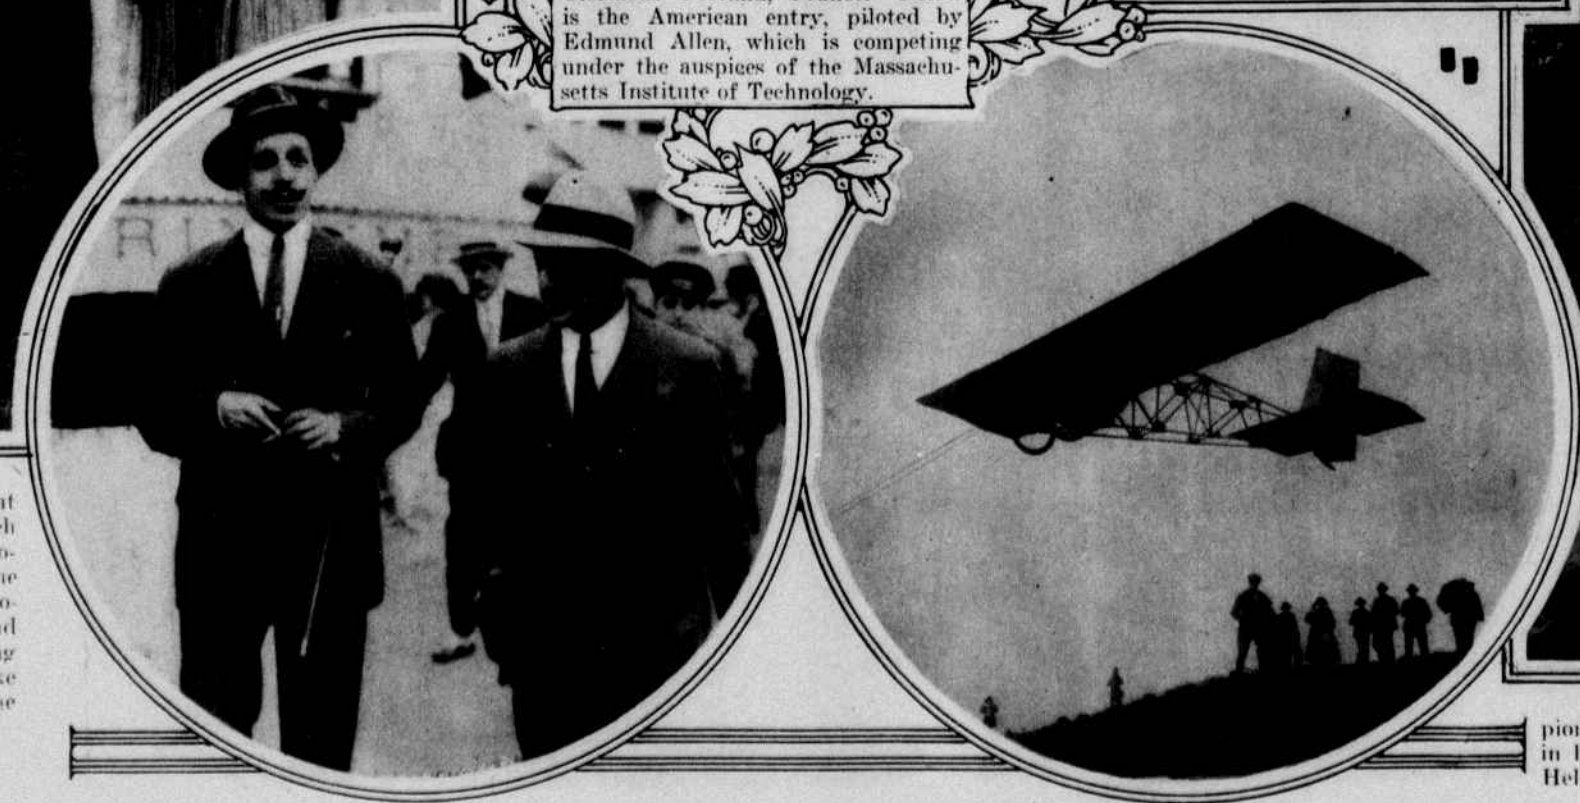

The opening of the season at Deauville, the popular French resort, has attracted many notable visitors. Above is the Shah of Persia with Mme. Storcso at the tennis matches, and at the right are shown King Alfonso of Spain with the Duke of Panaranda on the way to the races.

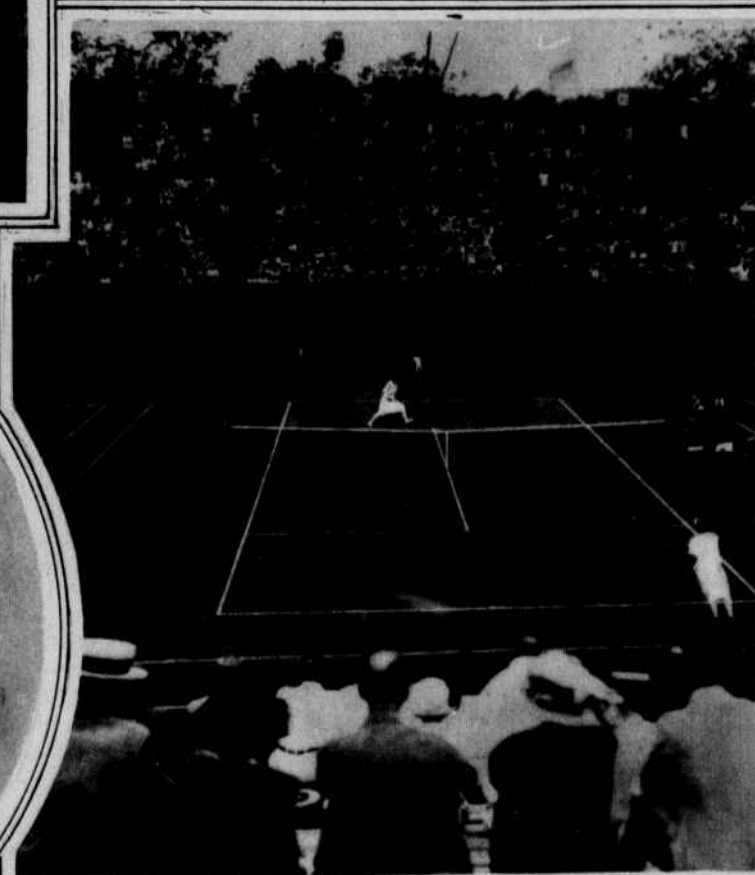

Lieut. W. F. Reed, Jr., pilot of the U. S. Navy balloon in the Geneva international race, shown with W. H. Gannett. New York Herald Foreign Photo.

Above -- M. Boussoutrot in the huge Farman glider in which he stayed in the air five minutes in the tests for motorless airplanes held at Clermont-Ferrand, France. Below is the American entry, piloted by Edmund Allen, which is competing under the auspices of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The U. S. Army balloon taking off in the race for the James Gordon Bennett cup. New York Herald Foreign Photo.

A view of the final match for the women's national tennis championship at Forest Hills, L. I., showing Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory in her seventh victory for the title by virtue of her defeat of Miss Helen Wills, the 16-year-old girl of California. Levick.